

What must be true about a question to classify it as a statistical question?

Identify if the question is statistical. Explain why or why not. If it is not statistical, rewrite so that it is a statistical question.

How many words are in this question?

Statistical? _____

Why or why not?

How many computers do you have in your house?

Statistical? _____

Why or why not?

How many siblings do the players on the volleyball team have living in their homes?

Statistical? _____

Why or why not?

How many socks do you have in your sock drawer?

Statistical? _____

Why or why not?

What is your favorite band?

Statistical? _____

Why or why not?

How far does Natalia have to walk to get to Sophia's house?

Statistical? _____

Why or why not?

Identifying Statistical Questions